This non-disclosure agreement dated this day of 20 between

SMSRKSZ Pty Ltd T/A Civil Comms Australia

And

(The Contractor)

Of

The Contractor has willingly agreed to enter into this undertaking and engagement as an independent contractor.

During the engagement and the restraint period the contractor agrees to the following:

1. This agreement commences as of the above specified date known as Commencement date.
2. The contractor acknowledges that all clients are clients of Civil Comms Australia and the contractor is representing Civil Comms Australia during all undertakings and duties performed. Such duties are performed on behalf of Civil Comms Australia, not of the independent contractor.
3. At no time during the engagement or during the restraint period will the contractor attempt to persuade a client to cease dealing with or reduce dealing with Civil Comms Australia.
4. At no time during the engagement with or during the restraint period will the contractor attempt to canvass or solicit the clients or business of Civil Comms Australia.
5. Any potential clients or professional contacts made during the contractors engagement are agreed to be and will remain clients and contacts solely of Civil Comms Australia.
6. Any new business, variations or changes to existing business agreements or contracts that become known to the contractor during the engagement will be considered business of Civil Comms Australia not the independent contractor. The Contractor is to bring such circumstances to the attention of Syd Henry or Michelle Bernays.
7. The contractor agrees that they will preserve the confidentiality of all information and data access received during the engagement with Civil Comms Australia.
8. All information, data, documentation, artefacts and/or similar shall remain the intellectual property of Civil Comms Australia at all times.
9. The Contractor agrees that all confidential information will not be used for any purpose other than, to perform the specified work or any other purpose directed by Syd Henry or Michelle Bernays.
10. The obligations of this contact will remain for a period of Six (6) months from the date the contact is terminated or ceased. The last date a Contractor performs paid duties for Civil Comms Australia should automatically be considered the final day of engagement.
